

Use Case	Function Being Tested	Initial System State	Input	Expected Output
Week Overdue	Print a report of all customers who have week overdue items.	System is in the process of starting up.	Open the program	System prints charges to each customer with new week overdue items.
Week Overdue	Total the charges of the week overdue items for each customer.	System is in the process of starting up.	Open the program	The total amount charged is equal to the sum of each individual charge.
Week Overdue	Remove items that have been charged to customers.	System is in the process of starting up.	Open the program	System removes those items from the database.
Week Overdue	Ensure a customer cannot be charged twice for the same unreturned item (no double jeopardy)	System is in the process of starting up.	Open the program	System does not charge the customer for the same overdue item.
Add Customer	Requires the customer to provide credit card.	Waiting for new customer input	Customer details including credit card	System successfully stores the credit card number
Add Customer	Requires the customer to provide credit card.	Waiting for new customer input	Customer details without credit card	System tells clerk to supply credit card info
Add Title	Require a new title to have purchase price.	Waiting for new title input	Title details with purchase price	System successfully stores the purchase price
Add Title	Require a new title to have purchase price.	Waiting for new title input	Title details without purchase price	System tells clerk to enter a purchase price